Dear Neighbours of Canada Place,

Re: Canada150 at Canada Place – Notification of Parking Restrictions and Street Closure

Canada Place, in partnership with the Government of Canada, Vancouver Fraser Port Authority and with support from the City of Vancouver, is pleased to host Canada150 at Canada Place on Saturday, July 1st & Sunday July 2nd, 2017. This award-winning event is the largest Canada Day celebration outside our nation's capital and we are celebrating for two days this year to commemorate Canada's 150th! The annual event is a combination of indoor and outdoor space at Canada Place and surrounding areas along Canada Place Way from Howe St to Thurlow St.

Please note: Due to the scale of the event, parking restrictions and street closures will be in effect as follows:

Parking restrictions in effect:

Friday, June 30th 2017 from 5:00pm to 4pm Sunday, July 2nd, 2017

- Both sides 200 Thurlow St., from W Cordova St. to Canada Place Way
- Both sides 800 - 1000 Canada Place Way, from Howe St. to Thurlow St.

Friday, June 30th, 2017 from 5:00pm to 4pm Sunday, July 2nd, 2017

- North side 800 W Cordova St., from Howe St. to Crosswalk mid-block (three-minute Tour Bus Zone)
- North side 900 W Cordova St., from Burrard St. to mid-block crosswalk (temporary taxi zone)

Street Closures in effect:

Friday, June 30th, 2017 from 5:00pm to 10am Sunday, July 2, 2017

- 800 - 1000 Canada Place Way (1/4 block west of Howe St. to Burrard St.) ¼ block west of Burrard St. to Thurlow St.)

Friday, June 30th, 2017 from 5:00pm to 7pm Sunday, July 2, 2017

- 800 - 1000 Canada Place Way (¼ block west of Burrard St. to Thurlow St.)
- Local access to the hotels, parkades (999, 1038 & 1055 Canada Place and 200 Burrard St) and Canada Place cruise ship terminal will be maintained during the day's events.

There will be barricades and Traffic Authority officers located at Howe & Cordova, Burrard & Cordova and Thurlow & Cordova streets beginning at 4:00pm on June 30. Once the street closures have been secured, building of the main stage on Canada Place Way at Canada Place and the Coast Capital Savings Youth Zone on Jack Poole Plaza will begin. Please note in and out vehicle traffic will be limited to hotel and cruise ship traffic only. We request all scheduled deliveries be complete by 10am July 1st.
